

New York 27 Feb.

Dear Deborah.

Your offer to advance
the day paper is recd.

I thought that if you intended to spend your money, you would do it more advantageously than by waiting, for the currency is depreciating & everything else measured by it is rising.

So I thought you
had best spend it at once. I trust you

mean to buy new beads
all over the House
why not do it now?

I fear I should want some more left I can always supply you. —

Franklin with the ingenuitè news is amusing. I A is certainly a brick

What said C
about my letter

that was loanel
I must careful
of my letters and sent the same—

Yours
